OUR HISTORY

Noreen A. Giacone opened My Place & Company in Delmar, NY in October 1982 with Phillip J. Giacone as the designer. Their son, James A. Giacone joined his mother as a partner in 1983. Their mission was to serve quality food at affordable prices. From the beginning, My Place & Company has been a favorite place to enjoy a quick lunch, a family dinner or watch the game with friends.

George J. Galib began working at My Place & Company in 1993. He learned all positions at the restaurant and expressed interest in opening his own restaurant. In 1999, George and James became business partners when they purchased the former Chuck's Brown Derby in Schodack, NY and transformed the restaurant into a second My Place & Company.

Both locations are "Family Fun Sports Restaurants," promoting Eat-In, Take-Out, and Delivery. Catering for all occasions and BBQ picnics are also offered. Large high-definition TVs featuring various sports packages, music, Quick Draw, Trivia Night, and occasional live entertainment can be found at both locations. Both My Place & Company locations have added beautiful patios for customers to enjoy dining outdoors during the warmer months.

My Place & Company prides itself on providing its customers a great value in a fast, friendly environment. We look forward to serving you, and remember, My Place is Your Place too!
